

Lua Carreira

Dance Teacher

Lisbon, 1997, he graduated from the Escola de Dança do Conservatório Nacional, in 2015 he continued his professional career at Ballet Junior de Genève, and in 2017 he joined the company EgriBianco Danza.

Since 2019, as a freelance dancer, works with creators Pedro Ramos, Filipa Peraltinha, Nélia Pinheiro, Benvindo Fonseca, Alice Joana Gonçalves and Tupac Martir stand out. As a choreographer, Lua has four creations, highlighting "Kind of Blue", a piece that was nominated for the dance prize at the 2022 National Exhibition of Young Creators. Lua Carreira is a co-founder of EmFim- Associação do Artista. Since 2022, she has been a resident artist at the Desvio space, where she began to develop her work in performance and became part of the production team at Artist Runspace MONO. She is currently a creative hosted by ZABRA - Movement of experimentation between Art, Technology and Science based in Lisbon and her creative work focuses on a multidisciplinary approach aimed at the deconstruction of the performative body approaching the exploration of new technologies and new corporeal entities through the choreographic method.

SUMMER DANCE INTENSIVE 2023