

Débora Queiroz

Dance Teacher

Débora Queiroz began her classical dance training at the age of four with Anna Mascolo at the Anna Mascolo Classical Dance School. In 1990, she was awarded a scholarship to attend the international Young Europeans Dance programme in Glasgow and later completed her professional training at the National Conservatory Dance School in Lisbon.

She developed a professional performing career spanning nearly two decades, dancing with some of Portugal's leading contemporary dance companies, including CEDECE – Companhia de Dança Contemporânea, Companhia de Dança de Almada and Lisboa Ballet Contemporâneo, collaborating with a wide range of choreographers and artistic projects throughout her career.

Alongside her work as a performer, she has built extensive teaching experience since 2000, delivering classes in both classical and contemporary dance. Her teaching portfolio includes Creative Dance, Baby Dance, Pointe Technique, Floor Barre, Contemporary Dance,

Senior Dance and dance programmes for people with disabilities.

In recent years, she has further expanded her professional practice through specialised training in Yoga, completing certifications in Kids Yoga, Hatha Yoga, Meditation and Deep Relaxation. These areas of study have become an important part of her pedagogical approach, supporting body awareness, creativity and holistic development.

Her career combines artistic experience, technical knowledge and a strong commitment to education, fostering learning environments that encourage physical development, creativity, artistic expression and well-being.

At the Summer Dance Intensive 2026, she will join the Elementary Level faculty, contributing to a thoughtful, structured and inspiring approach to the artistic development of young students.
