

Sara Bráz

Guest Teacher

Sara Bráz is an actress, singer and dubbing voice director whose career spans theatre, television, film and voice direction.

She graduated from the Professional Theatre Course at the Cascais Professional Theatre School and further developed her artistic training through singing lessons and acting workshops led by renowned professionals, including Aderbal Freire-Filho, Rita Blanco and Atílio Riccó.

Throughout her career, she has performed in numerous musical theatre, revue theatre and dramatic theatre productions, collaborating with companies and producers such as ArtFeist, Marina Mota Produções, Protagoniza Magia, Companhia de Teatro – O Sonho and Força de Produção. Her recent stage work includes Thérèse Martin – The Musical, Merry Poppin' Christmas, Pinocchio – A Musical Adventure, Shrek – The Musical and Show Some Respect, I'm Your Mother.

In television, she has appeared in productions by RTP, SP Televisão and Plural, including História do Teatro de Revista em Portugal, A Impostora, Coração d'Ouro, Jardins Proibidos, Rosa Fogo, Rebelde Way and Contame Como Foi.

Alongside her performing career, she has worked since 2013 as a dubbing voice director, collaborating with several Portuguese recording studios on film, television and streaming productions, including projects for DreamWorks, Netflix, Amazon Prime, Cartoon Network, Disney Channel, SIC K, Canal Panda and Discovery Channel.

Her professional journey combines extensive experience in the performing arts, bringing together acting, singing and artistic direction, with a particular focus on character development, vocal expression and stage communication.

At the Summer Dance Intensive 2026, Sara Bráz will lead the Musical Theatre programme for the Elementary Level, introducing students to stage performance, artistic expression and the relationship between movement, music and storytelling through a creative, engaging and age-appropriate learning environment.
